The flexibility you need

We understand parents are worried about being left in the lurch or out of pocket because of changing travel rules.

That's why we've enacted our Peace of Mind Promise, which gives you extra financial protection in the event:

- DfE or FCDO advise against travel
- Quarantine restrictions are imposed

Receive a full refund

If your trip is cancelled within 21 days of departure due to COVID-19 restrictions and you are unable to claim from your insurance, we guarantee to either find you a suitable alternative or refund your group in full in the event:

- The DfE or FCDO advise against travel to your destination
- Local or national UK lockdowns prevent your departure
- The whole group is required to quarantine upon arrival
- Government travel rules require your whole group to quarantine on your return

Freedom to postpone

If you have to change your plans because of COVID-19, we promise to waive our amendment fees so that you can postpone your trip between 12 weeks and 28 days before departure.

COVID-19 Insurance included

You're covered should your child get 'pinged' or test positive for COVID-19 before or during the trip.

Should your child test positive on the trip, the insurance covers the cost of a parent travelling to resort to support their child until they can return home.
